

Bishop Woodford House

- directions

Bishop Woodford House is a modern building situated on the south side of Barton Road. The entrance to the retreat house is under the only pitched part of the roof.

It is easily accessible by road, from the M11, A14 and A10, and also by rail with good services to London and to the North and West.

Directions by Car

Directions from Ely Train Station

Directions by Coach

Go by National Express Coach to Cambridge and then catch the 9 or X9 from Drummer Street to Ely Market Street. Turn left out of Market Street onto Lynn Road heading towards the Cathedral. Follow the road past the Cathedral and go over the first mini roundabout. Continue on to the second mini roundabout about 50 meters down the road and turn right onto Barton Road. The House is about 200 meters along the road on the left. It takes about 10 minutes to walk or 5 minutes in a taxi.
